

NOËL GREIG YOUNG WRITERS TRAVEL BURSARY

Noël Greig was an avid traveller whose adventures took him to many parts of the globe. His journeys enabled him to connect with a diverse range of people; many became long-standing friends. Every journey whether down the road or across the world was, for Noël, full of possibility and learning that impacted on his own playwriting - through new characters, new stories, new ideas. This in turn influenced how he taught and nurtured others. The young writers travel bursary was created by donations to honour his talent and encourage young new writers to build on his legacy following his death in 2009.

Up to £750 for young writers under 30 towards travel costs (as eco-friendly as possible...) for exploring a new idea

For further information, contact Kully Thiarai:
kullythiarai@mac.com

To apply, send:

- * a letter of application outlining the idea and why the bursary is important to you
- * a budget outlining how the money would be used
- * a CV including two referees

Applications to:

Kully Thiarai
c/o Contact Theatre
Oxford Road
Manchester
M15 6JA

By: 30th September 2010

